

YOUTH REPORTER PROGRAM

GUIDEPOSTS FOR PARTICIPATION

Each venue will have the option of selecting at least one youth reporter to write a review or story about the Liyana Concert.

Students may have the option of taking a photograph to accompany their story.

Teachers will provide guidelines and mentorship to ensure youth reporters understand the process of information collection and writing.

Student reporters can submit their completed stories to dbriggs@pgfdn.com for placement on the liyanatour.com website, and for possible placement in other publications.

All submissions from the Youth Reporting Program will remain the property of authors but may be used for promotional, informational, and educational purposes by the Liyana Tour 2009 and its sponsors.
